

CIRTL NETWORK COFFEE HOUR SERIES

Fall 2010 - Spring 2011

NAVIGATING THE JOB MARKET FOR GRADUATE STUDENTS AND POST-DOCS

The 2010-2011 Coffee Hour Series will provide an online opportunity for STEM graduate students and post-docs to get together and talk about careers and the academic job search. The series will be facilitated by a mix of graduate students, post-docs, young faculty who have recently secured positions and more seasoned, tenured faculty.

CIRTL COFFEE HOURS WILL RUN MONTHLY ON THE 3RD THURSDAY AT 1PM ET / 12PM CT / 11AM MT / 10AM PT

VISIT WWW.CIRTL.NET/COFFEEHOUR TO ATTEND OR FOR MORE INFORMATION

SEPTEMBER 16, 2010

The CIRTL Network Exchange program: Why do it and what you can get from it

OCTOBER 21, 2010

Where do you want to work? Teaching and research at different institutions

NOVEMBER 18, 2010

Using your Teaching-as-Research Project to strengthen your professional life

DECEMBER 16, 2010

No Coffee Hour this month

JANUARY 20, 2011

What to know about tenure and promotion BEFORE applying for a job

FEBRUARY 17, 2011

Developing written materials for the job application

MARCH 17, 2011

The interview process: What to expect and how to prepare

APRIL 21, 2011

Making the transition from graduate student to assistant faculty

MAY 19, 2011

The Job Search: Remaining questions, issues and challenges

www.cirtl.net

